

College of Business Lecture Series

” SABIC Young Leadership Council”

By Mr. Khaled S. Al-Muhaisen

Global Leader

People & Organization / Corporate HR

- Mr. Al-Muhaisen is an experienced Executive with global experience in leading teams from the Americas, Europe, Middle-East and APAC regions. He is currently the Global Leader of SABIC’s – People & Organization function; a key enabler of human capital, value creation and our transformation agenda. In addition AlMuhaisen is the current Head of HR for SABIC’s Americas region and is based full-time in the Houston HQ.
- He is synonymous for his strong leadership and drive for engagement and delivering change. Today AlMuhaisen plays a pivotal role in SABIC’s HR Strategy with noteworthy contributions to major enterprise wide projects. Today in his dual leadership roles he leads a Global HR team dedicated to attracting, developing and retaining world-class human capital for SABIC’s operational and strategic intent.
- His career to-date has seen him work in the US and lead global teams in SABIC’s major hubs of Houston, Sittard, Riyadh, Singapore and Shanghai. As a member of SABIC’s leadership team; today he contributes towards the formulation and implementation of overall business strategies, plans and implementing optimum people and organization solutions.
- The scope of his expertise also covers: HR Governance & Strategy, Program Integration, Global Talent Management, Enterprise Learning, Corporate University, HRIS & Analytics, Total Rewards, Talent Acquisition, Career Development, Succession Planning & Performance Management.
- In addition AlMuhaisen is an active serving member of (i) the Board of Ibn Zahr (Saudi European Petrochemical Company) – A SABIC affiliate and world- class polypropylene plant, based in AlJubail and R&C Committee Member for Saudi Arabian Fertilizer Company (SAFCO).

Lecture Topic

- This Council is acting as a leadership team to support SABIC CEO.
- Senior management to connect with the early career employees at the company globally.

Wednesday 2
December 2020

12:00 – 1:00 PM

Female Lecture Theatre